

To apply for a rights issue online through ASBA (Application Supported by Blocked Amount), you may follow these steps:

Step 1: Ensure Eligibility

- First, ensure that you are eligible to apply for the rights issue by referring to the company's offer letter, which will be sent via email and the demat account details are updated in the Company and depositories record. If you prefer, you can also check your demat account on October 14, 2024, to view your rights entitlement. These details, with ISIN – INE007B20015, will be available in your demat account until October 23, 2024.
- Check if your bank is providing ASBA services and that you have a net banking account.

Step 2: Log in to Your Net Banking Account

- Log in to your net banking portal, which supports ASBA services.
- Navigate to the relevant section in the net banking portal, where you should find an option like "IPO/ Rights Issue/ ASBA." (Generally, ASBA applications are grouped under Investments section in net banking portal. The exact wording may vary across different banks). For more information, investors may contact their relevant bank.

Step 3: Select Rights Issue

- Look for the Geojit rights issue.
- Click on the issue to open the application form.

Step 4: Fill in the Application Details

- Enter the number of shares you wish to apply for.
- Review the amount that will be blocked in your bank account for the application.
- Fill in your demat account number and other necessary details.

Step 5: Submit the Application

- Confirm the details and submit the application.
- The corresponding amount will be blocked in your account but not debited until the shares are allotted.

Make sure to submit your application within the stipulated timeline for the rights issue.

This step-by-step process is provided solely for ease of reference. For complete details, including terms and conditions, eligibility, and the application process, please refer to the Letter of Offer (LoF) issued by the company. The LoF contains comprehensive information and should be carefully reviewed before submitting your application.
